LIMITATIONS OF NSW NOMINATION

NSW nominates applicants to apply for a skilled nominated visa if they meet NSW and the specified RDA eligibility requirements in an occupation that is on the specified RDA Skilled Occupations List. The occupations eligible for NSW nomination will change from time to time depending on economic need.

All applications are assessed against the criteria on the basis of information and evidence submitted to support claims made. Applicants who demonstrate that they meet criteria for nomination and who submit a fully documented application, may be nominated by NSW to apply for the Skilled Regional (Provisional) visa (subclass 489) however NSW nomination is not guaranteed at any stage.

Obtaining NSW nomination is only the first step for prospective migrants to obtain this visa. Applicants applying for NSW nomination should also be aware that:

- NSW nomination is valid for one nomination and against one Expression of Interest (EOI) only
- NSW nomination is valid for 60 days only and a nomination does not imply that NSW will approve any subsequent applications for state nomination
- The Department of Home Affairs has sole responsibility for the granting of visas to enter or stay in Australia and NSW nomination does not mean that a visa application will be approved by the Department of Home Affairs
- NSW nomination does not constitute the granting of a visa to enter or stay in Australia.

APPLICANT DECLARATIONS

I consent to NSW Department of Industry and the specified RDA (RDA Orana) office sharing the information provided on this form with the Department of Home Affairs and/or third parties for the purposes of verification and processing of my visa application.

I declare that the information submitted in this application is true and accurate and that I have read all Department of Home Affairs criteria for this visa as well as the nomination criteria of the designated area to which I have applied for nomination and assess that I meet these criteria.

I acknowledge that NSW nomination is valid for one nomination and against one Expression of Interest (EOI) number only.

If granted a Skilled Regional (Provisional) visa (subclass 489) by the Department of Home Affairs, I agree to:

- Live and work in the nominating NSW regional area for two years from the date of visa grant (if already residing in Australia) or the date of my arrival in Australia.
- Advise the specified RDA office (RDA Orana) of my address on arrival in NSW (if applicable) and of any change of home or business address during the first two years that I reside in NSW on this visa.
- Respond to surveys or requests for updated information on employment and settlement in NSW.
