CHANGES TO SOUTH AUSTRALIA SKILLED OCCUPATION LISTS WITH EFFECT FROM 11TH MARCH 2019

The Commonwealth Department of Home Affairs has announced changes this week (with immediate effect) to the combined list of eligible skilled occupations.

As a result of these changes, Immigration SA has reviewed the State Nominated Occupation List (SNOL) and Supplementary Skilled List (SSL). Three occupations will be added to the SNOL (Statistician, Multimedia Specialist and Software and Application Programmers nec) and 32 occupations will be added to the SSL in the afternoon of Friday 15 March.

The Commonwealth Government has removed five occupations from the STSOL and therefore, these occupations are no longer available for state nomination.

There are no changes to the occupations available for the Regional Sponsored Migration Scheme (RSMS).
